Introduction to Marketplace Ministry

(Master of Marketplace Ministry program)

This course provides a foundational understanding of Marketplace Ministry, where faith and work intersect to create opportunities for Christian influence in the marketplace. Students will explore the biblical basis for integrating their faith into their professional lives, while learning how to apply Christian principles in the marketplace e.g., business, industry, government, education, and other sectors. The course covers topics such as biblical foundations, history and development, challenges and opportunities of marketplace ministry, leadership approach, different marketplace ministry models, bi-vocational and co-vocational ministry etc. Through discussions and practical exercises, students will be equipped to bring Kingdom values into the marketplace, positively impacting their communities for Christ. By the end of the course, participants will have a deeper sense of calling and purpose in their work, understanding how to make a transformative difference in the marketplace while staying grounded in their Christian faith.

PASTOR JESSEN YEOH is a co-vocational minister. He was originally trained as a civil & structural engineer and has 25 years of experience as a business consultant in organizational improvement. Before joining the Baptist Union of Victoria (BUV) as a Church Consultant, Jessen served as a Lead Pastor at a local Baptist church Chinese Ministry.

Leadership For the Long Haul

Leadership is a journey, not a destination. It is hard and the Leader is vulnerable to distractions and temptations. So many leaders do well initially but do not last. Many fall by the wayside and their prophetic destiny is truncated. In this age of multiple challenges and assaults on the Leader, how does a Leader “fly high and last long” ?

This course will give you precious handles on how to do that. Topics covered include, The Keys of Successful Leadership, Integrity, How to restore a Fallen Leader, Burnout and The Heart of a Leader among other key topics that touch on issues that will enable us to last the pace and cross the finish line victoriously.

PASTOR DR CHEW WENG CHEE is the Senior Pastor of SIBKL. He was a Consultant Obstetrician and Gynaecologist before serving the Lord full time in 1999. He graduated with a Masters degree in Theology from the Regent College Bible School, Vancouver in 1993. Till March 2007, he was the President of the Sidang Injil Borneo (SIB), Semenanjung, overseeing 31 Bahasa Malaysia churches throughout West Malaysia. Pastor Dr Chew has ministered extensively in conferences and church camps both locally and overseas. He has written two books :

- 1) On the book of Ecclesiastes, A Study on the Wisdom of Solomon entitled " Is Life Worth Living?"
- 2) On the book of Revelation entitled : " Chew on Revelation".

History, Faith and Diversity from the Practice of Asian Religious Tradition

For those wanting to deepen their understanding and engagement with other perspectives, this course explores the history, theology and diversity of Asian religious tradition and implications for Christian engagement throughout the centuries. It observes the tradition's historical development from its commencement and through the periods of medieval civilisation, and challenging encounters with the Western world. It examines theological commonalities and contrasts such as the nature of God, Jesus, messengers and salvation.

DR. L. MAK is a lecturer in religious studies based at a theological seminary in the UK but has also taught in various seminaries in Asia. His research and publications relate to faith and East/West interaction. He is also a consultant and adviser to European and Asian enterprises and professionals serving interculturally in many different nations.
